Booking on a Hunting Day

To confirm your space on a Hunting Day, entries must be made via our booking system BookWhen.

Cancellation

In the event you need to cancel your entry, you may cancel and obtain a refund giving 72 hours notice prior to the date booked.

Cancellations after this period will be at the discretion of our Honorary Secretary. In the event where we hold a waiting list for the booked Hunt date, we will endeavour to replace your vacant spot with another participant or offer a transfer to another Hunt Date – subject to availability.

Cancellation by The New Forest Bloodhounds

In the event of a cancellation by New Forest Bloodhounds the option of a refund for that meet date or transfer to another meet date, subject to availability, will be offered.

Subscribers

Subscribers to the New Forest Bloodhounds will be able to book in through BookWhen and will be given instructions on receipt of their riding subscription.

Wait List

We will hold a wait list for any Hunting Day that is at capacity and those on the waitlist will be contacted if a space becomes available.
